

Drue Lane Webster Volunteer Service Award

"Branching Out Into The Community"

In 1985, the JLSL Drue Lane Webster Volunteer Service Award was established in memory of Drue by her husband, the Honorable William H. Webster, former Director of the CIA and the FBI. This award honors Drue's selfless, caring style of voluntarism, which serves as an inspiration to all JLSL members.

The recipient(s) of the 2008 Drue Webster Award will be announced at the JLSL Annual Meeting in May. A donation honoring the recipient(s) will be given to the community agency of her/their choice. Since the inception of the award, over $18,000. has been given to the community to the following agencies selected by the recipients:

Hope Center for Children	Life Seekers	Life Skills
The Children's Foundation of St. Louis, Inc.	Beyond Housing	Southside Day Nursery
Lydia's House	Villa Marie	St. John's Mercy Foundation
