ST. LOUIS

Women building better communities®

ANNUAL REPORT

2012-2013

A Message from President Maureen Strasheim

As President of the Junior League of St. Louis, one of my perks is to review the Annual Report before it is released to our Members and to the public. While I know in my head how busy the Junior League of St. Louis Members have been this past year attending training sessions and being involved in the St. Louis community through our many partnerships, it makes an entirely different impression when my eyes see all that participation on paper! It is truly remarkable the number of opportunities our Members have to develop their potential as women and to impact the community.

One of my personal highlights in 2012-2013 was the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the St. Louis Family Theatre Series. JLSL Members, past Family Theatre Committee Chairs, season ticket holders, and the fabulous staff of the Florissant Civic Center Theatre gathered on January 19th for a reception and a performance of Charlotte's Web. During his remarks, Theatre Director Gary Gaydos reminded us all just how special and broad-reaching this program is. With annual attendance of over 25,000 people, it is the JLSL project that touches the most people, particularly children, every year. Our own Members are involved by serving on the committee, acting as ushers during weekend performances, and attending the shows with their own families. While my own children have (sadly) aged out of the target audience, the remembrances of the excitement of seeing the live performances will live on in our memories forever.

As we close out 2012-2013, we prepare for another significant anniversary – the 100th anniversary of the Junior League of St. Louis! In 1914, Margaret McKittrick and Ann Drew were worried about the clock ticking on the women's suffrage movement. Women were not allowed to vote, and they thought it was about time that changed. As leaders in the local St. Louis suffrage movement, they reached out to a number of women and encouraged them to become active in their community. This led to way to the formation of the Junior League of St. Louis, officially begun in November 1914 in Margaret McKittrick's home.

What has occurred in the passing of those 100 years is amazing! We will be taking time throughout 2014 to reflect and celebrate our accomplishments while at the same time, building the capacity of our organization for the next 100 years.

I look forward to next year and my sneak peak of the 2013-2014 Annual Report, which will be filled again with examples of the plentiful training and volunteer opportunities offered to our members, but which will also recapture the events surrounding our 100th anniversary. I look forward to seeing photos of current and former Members celebrating their accomplishments together and to seeing on paper the truly outstanding organization that is the Junior League of St. Louis.

St. Louis Family Theatre Series—25th Anniversary

Celebrating its 25th year in the community, this program introduces over 20,000 St. Louis area school children and their families to live theatre annually. Over the years, the St. Louis Family Theatre Series' (SLFTS) performances have entertained almost a half million young people. The SLFTS began in 1986 as a Junior League of St. Louis (JLSL) priority group, then called Audience of the Arts. Because it made such a significant contribution to the community by touching the lives of so many children, it was made a JLSL perpetual project in 1989, on JLSL's 75th anniversary.

JLSL Members working with SLFTS have several unique training opportunities which include serving as a docent in the classroom or as an usher at the theatre. Many local schools plan field trips to see performances each year. In preparation for the “theatre experience”, a docent will visit each classroom and talk about what to expect at the theatre and during the performance. The children can ask questions, since for many of them this is the first time they will experience “live theatre”. As an usher, JLSL Members assist the young theatre-goers from the minute they walk in the door, ensuring that their theatrical experience is enjoyable and memorable.

The Junior League of St. Louis and Grace Hill Present

STRONG WOMEN & FAMILIES

health & resource fair

The Junior League of St. Louis' partnership with Grace Hill was a huge success for our 4th Annual Health and Resource Fair! Over 325 low-income families attended the April 6th event and received access to a variety of health and human services to help build a healthy and strong community.

This one-stop fair had approximately 70 community partners providing information, services, and necessary follow up. Many health services such as eye exams, lab work, dental exams and cleanings were offered in Grace Hill's state of the art Health Center. Mercy's mammography van provided free screenings and follow up services to participants. Grace Hill provided Infant CPR classes and First Book - St Louis gave away free children's books.

Our success was largely due to the JLSL and Grace Hill volunteers that canvassed the neighborhoods in the weeks leading up to the event because attendance was largely based upon word of mouth. The Strong Women and Families Committee would like to thank everyone that provided support and volunteered their time, in providing an important service to the community.

State Legislative Issues Committee (SLIC)

Update on House Bill 134

On April 3rd, the bill passed in the House of Representatives with 141 to 9 votes in support of the bill. The bill was then referred to the Senate Education Committee under the leadership of David Pearce. On April 24th the Education Committee had a hearing on HB134. SLIC representatives, Sue Allen, Sydney and Michelle Wilhelm, as well as other organizations from across the state testified in front of the committee.

On May 8th, HB134 was finally voted out of the Senate Education Committee. The committee did update the bill's verbiage without affecting its essence. At the time when the bill was voted out of the committee, there was only one week left in the legislative session. To increase the chances for the bill to pass, HB134 was attached as an amendment to a Senate Bill (SB) 77 and later Senate Bill 256.

JLSL Members Attended A Day at the Capitol in Jefferson City on February 20th

During the week of May 13th, it became clear that a couple of Senators were opposed to the bill's verbiage. Senator Jolie Justus from Kansas City expressed opposition to the bill and threatened to filibuster it if it went to the Senate floor. With less than a week left in the session and multiple bills still needing to be passed, the Senate couldn't afford a filibuster. As result, the bill's verbiage was removed from the SB77.

Senator Justus wanted the bill to have a special clause providing protection to the enumerated classes. After discussion between Representative Sue Allen and Senator Justus, the Senator agreed to compromise and pass the bill with the original verbiage, protecting ALL the kids without exception. Unfortunately by then, a couple of conservative Senators retracted their support and wanted to put the clause on the bill that would specifically prohibit a school bullying policy to contain protection for any enumerated classes. The session came to an end and the bill never made it to the Senate floor.

Though the bill didn't pass, it moved in the legislative process further than during any previous year. The process was a good learning opportunity, and it is now clear who the true supporters are, as well as those in opposition. This information will allow JLSL to come up with a stronger plan for next year.

Junior Junior Leaguers

In September, the Junior Junior Leaguers held their kick-off meeting and made over 200 craft kits for Mercy Children's Hospital. In October, they visited the residents of the Mary Ryder Home and brightened the residents' day by making holiday crafts with them and serving lunch.

On the morning of December 1st, the Junior Junior Leaguers, along with DIAD, had a holiday themed event at the historic downtown Kirkwood Train Station. During this event holiday cards were made for the troops and Members helped clean and decorate the Station for the holidays.

In January, the Junior Junior Leaguers were introduced to the social aspect of the League when the JJL committee hosted a book club. The book discussed was "The Secret Garden" by Frances Hodgson Burnett. The event included a viewing of "The Secret Garden" movie and an ice cream bar. The Junior Junior Leaguers continued their charitable ways by volunteering at Nurses for Newborns in February and in March, they boxed food at the St. Louis Area Foodbank. The girls wrapped up the year with an end-of-the-year party. While celebrating, they made 300 craft kits for pediatric patients at Mercy Children's Hospital.

The purpose of the Junior Junior League program was to get young girls, ages 6-16, involved in the JLSL.
JJL goals included supporting the JLSL focus and mission.

3rd Annual A Gathering Place Kitchen Tour and Toast of the Tour Party A Huge Success!

The Kitchen Tour and Toast of the Tour Party have turned into can't miss and popular events for League Members and the community. Building on traditions from the past two years and offering new and exciting experiences, this year's events were very successful.

The festivities kicked off with the Toast of the Tour party on Friday, April 19th, at Immerse by Atlas in Hanley Industrial Court. The evening featured hors d'oeuvres catered by J. Gilberts, Harry and David, and Lola's. Smoothies were provided by Smoothie King. A candy bar (pictured below) was a big attraction.

While mixing and mingling in Immerse's one-of-a-kind showroom, guests had their picture taken in front of the Junior League's new step-and-repeat banner and bid on a multitude of fabulous silent auction items, including vacation get-a-ways, hotel packages, signed sports memorabilia, and autographed celebrity chef aprons. At the end of the evening, guests were treated to a VIP gift bag and a bottle of laundry detergent.

The Kitchen Tour was held the next day on Saturday, April 20th, and featured six houses located in the central corridor of St. Louis, with the majority of homes located in Ladue. This year's tour offered something for all tastes, including sleek modern kitchens, traditional stately kitchens, and even a pool house kitchen. Each tour-goer was provided with a Saint Louis Days / Saint Louis Nights cookbook and a gift bag provided by one of our sponsors, Karr Bick Kitchen and Bath. Along the route, guests were treated to food from the Art of Entertaining, Harry and David, and J. Gilberts, as well as delicious JLSL Cinnamon Rolls and coffee.

Both events were a resounding success! 137 tickets were sold to the Toast of the Tour Party and 258 tickets to the Kitchen Tour. The silent auction alone brought in $6,566. All told, the two events raised more than $17,000. By Ann Beck and Julie Kearbey, Co-Chairs

DRUE LANE WEBSTER Volunteer Service Award

"I Can't Believe I'm A Drue Webster!"

These were the words of the newest Drue Lane Webster Volunteer Service Award recipient, Sustainer, Karen McFarland, at the JLSL Annual Meeting on May 22nd. Moved with gratitude for the honor, Karen gave her $500 award to Nurses for Newborns. Karen is a leader who commits her full energy towards the JLSL, her community, church, and family.

In her 36 years as a JLSL Member, Karen has served in a variety of capacities from Tearoom Day Chair, Gift Shop Chair, Manager and Buyer, as well as a New Member Advisor. As a Sustainer, she continues to stay involved on the Sustainer Council, League Investors, LLC as well as Strong Women & Families Health and Resource Fair and other various activities. Karen's friendliness warms everyone around her whether she is visiting someone in the hospital or making sure everyone is included during the holidays.

Patty Dolson and Karen McFarland

Patty Dolson's volunteer spirit began at a young age when her mother insisted that she and her brothers do something "constructive" during the summer. So, they signed up to volunteer at the Blind Girls Home, which is now the Mary Culver Home in Kirkwood. Perhaps this early volunteering start is why Patty is our other newest Active Drue Lane Webster Volunteer Service Award recipient. For more than 20 years, Patty has been involved in the JLSL in activities such as Komen St. Louis Race for the Cure®, Strong Women & Families Health and Resource Fair, Our Little Haven, Glass Slipper, SLIC, Nominating and has been a Member of the JLSL Board. She has frequently been on multiple committees and is always willing to help wherever needed. Despite her active JLSL schedule, Patty works full-time for MasterCard International and, for 26 years, led teams for Junior Achievement, Habitat for Humanity, Operation Food Search as well as heading up the annual Adopt-A-Family event. Patty gave her $500 check to Covenant House of Missouri.
